COVID-19 Update

As a member of our Sterling Legal community, your health and safety is our top priority. Please review the following announcement regarding COVID-19, which outlines what you can expect from us as we work through this extraordinary time together.

Friends and Colleagues,

During this extremely difficult situation with the coronavirus (COVID-19), nothing is more important to Sterling Legal than the health and safety of our clients, candidates and employees – people are our business.

We are experiencing higher than normal calls from candidates and clients alike – everyone is looking for solutions on how to navigate interviewing and hiring. You can count on us to continue to do our best to serve you and keep you informed – we are here to help.

Our top priority is the safety of you and our employees. We have done a series of things to make the hiring environment as safe as possible.

- We have established a set of protocols enabling our employees to work remotely. We are still actively sourcing and recruiting.
- We have taken measures to eliminate travel and in-person interviews and meetings for clients and candidates.
- All Sterling Legal in-house interviews are taking place via phone screen and video interviewing. This is the best way for you to meet new candidates as well. Whichever video conferencing platform you choose to use is fine. Our candidates are prepared.
- We are also offering career counseling, strategic planning and resume assistance to candidates who are struggling with career direction.

We are seeing unprecedented change in the use of automation and data-driven technologies. The workplace and workforce are changing rapidly. Keeping up with the velocity of change is vitally important. Everyone must build digital readiness into the DNA of their personal or business plans to be ready to face the uncertain and constantly changing future. Our goal is to support our candidates and clients in developing strategies to navigate and manage change swiftly and successfully.

For 30 years, we have been committed to serving the legal community, even in the most challenging of times. Thank you for continuing to trust us. Our hearts go out to everyone who has been impacted by this global crisis and we will continue to do everything we can to protect our people and to be available to you.

Sincerely,
